Briana Waters has been indicted in the politically motivated arson at the UW Center for Urban Horticulture in 2001. Briana Waters is facing a mandatory minimum of 35 years. Briana Waters pleads not guilty to the alleged charges.

It is important that there is support in the courtroom to bear witness to the trial. Please come dressed appropriate for the court and be on time! Our support will show that the public is concerned about this political case. Anyone interested in maintaining their civil liberties should be interested in this case. The support will be in the courtroom not on the streets at this time.
